

I am an XM customer, as well as a resident of Clear Channel broadcasting area. I purchased the XM system because I was terribly disappointed with Clear Channel's complete lack of ability to offer entertaining programming, as well as their complete lack of variety. Allowing them to bully the satellite radio industry is public disgrace. I am also an aviator. Nothing offers the choice of programming and news information in the way that XM can deliver, no matter where I am.

Sean Mollet